

EYNSFORD PEACE CELEBRATIONS

Little is known about the Peace celebrations in Eynsford.

More was made of the Anniversary of Armistice Day.

11 November 1919

The head noted that following the suggestions of Kent Education Committee and the League of Nations Union 'the lessons today have in some cases dealt with the subject of Armistice Day and the League of Nations. The Time Table was not strictly adhered to in consequence.'

On 29 August 1919 the head of Eynsford Council School noted that the school closed that afternoon for one month, one week for Peace and three for hop picking.

Nov. 11th Following the suggestion of the KEC and the League of Nations Union the lessons today have in some cases dealt with the subject of Armistice Day and the League of Nations. The Time Table has not been strictly adhered to in consequence.

EYNSFORD PEACE CELEBRATIONS

The only evidence of Eynsford Peace Celebrations - a procession, dated July 19th (could be 18th), 1919